G. SOCIETAL AND POLICY IMPACTS

Colatrella's research includes interdisciplinary scholarship connecting literature and media with science, technology, and art; gender studies; and international higher education. She has collaborated on designing curricular and extracurricular programs (LMC degrees, WST minor and WST Learning Community, and courses for summer study abroad programs) offered at Georgia Tech. Her leadership of WST, ADVANCE, and the Society for Literature, Science, and the Arts builds on her research; these programs are now models.
